InnVision Shelter Network Annual Benefit Breakfast Set for Thursday, October 8, 2015

Event will feature 'Voice of the 49ers' Ted Robinson in Conversation with 49ers Super Bowl Winner Dennis Brown Who Will Share His Personal Story of Overcoming Homelessness

MENLO PARK, CA July 28, 2015 – InnVision Shelter Network (IVSN), a leading provider of housing and supportive services for homeless families and individuals in Santa Clara and San Mateo Counties, will host its annual Benefit Breakfast on Thursday, October 8th from 7:30am to 9:00am at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Burlingame.

Program highlights will include:

- An update on the programs of InnVision Shelter Network from CEO Bruce Ives
- The personal story of an IVSN client
- Fundraising opportunities for IVSN programs that assist over 10,000 homeless people each year
- An engaging keynote address designed as a 'fireside chat' between Ted Robinson, the radio play-by-play announcer for the San Francisco 49ers, and Dennis Brown, former San Francisco 49ers defensive end, Super Bowl XXIX Championship team member, Rookie of the Year, and winner of the Ed Block Courage Award
- Community engagement awards honoring local volunteers

The IVSN Annual Benefit Breakfast is the largest event of its kind on the San Francisco Peninsula, with typically over 1,000 guests attending. This inspiring event promotes awareness about issues of homelessness and how the community can get involved to contribute to effective solutions. Event sponsorships, table hosts and day-of donations help fund IVSN housing programs and supportive services for homeless men, women, and children.

Event sponsorship information and table host opportunities are available online at www.ivsn.org/breakfast or by emailing or calling Amy Wright, VP, Development awright@ivsn.org; (650) 685-5880 ext. 132.

About InnVision Shelter Network

InnVision Shelter Network (IVSN) is the leading provider of shelter and supportive services for homeless families and individuals throughout Santa Clara and San Mateo counties. Through 17 locations and other non-site based programs from San Jose to Daly City, IVSN provides emergency, transitional, and permanent supportive housing, along with intensive case management designed to help clients make a rapid return to housing and ongoing self-sufficiency.

IVSN assists homeless clients with an intensive case management model – a proven methodology that has historically delivered an 80% success rate in returning program graduates to stable housing and self-sufficiency. Through community support – including financial contributions, in-kind donations, and volunteerism – IVSN empowers people in our community struggling with poverty and homelessness to gain valuable skills that lead to long-term self-sufficiency. www.ivsn.org
